I had been wondering about how Sergei was doing and I found this. We didn't see too much of each other after high school, but every time we did, it was like we were long lost besties. RIP Serge, and I'll miss him.

Serge was at several reunions. I remember talking with him at the 70th birthday bash. I was sitting next to him at the table. He is seen at the beginning of this video that I took:

Rest in Peace, my Russian friend! As we say in Russian: "Пусть ему будет Царство Небесное!" (May the Kingdom of Heaven be His)
