Military Wives:

1. Carol Dinits – Air Force: Changing my way of life as Neil (Silk) has made the Air Force a career. Adapting to military life has been a terrific experience and we fully enjoy it. The Air Force has given us a chance to live in Virginia, Guam, California, and Nebraska. We are now waiting for an assignment to England.

CAROL DINITS

2. Susan MacBride – Coast Guard: Pete (Hoffman) was in the Coast Guard so we moved a lot – North Carolina, Florida, Alaska, Puerto Rico, California, Oregon, Virginia. He retired from the Coast Guard in 1987.

SUSAN MACBRIDE

3. Jane Pulverman – Army: I have the honor of being married (48 years) to my favorite veteran, Joe Boscacci, who served in the Army, 32 years on Active Duty and in Reserves. Our life has been very full and enriched by being part of the military communities in which we resided across our nation. I loved being a military wife and mother. The experiences it brought me, as well as my/our 4 children, were priceless. My husband is retired but continues working with several military organizations now as a volunteer. God Bless our Veterans across our great nation on Veterans Day and always. They deserve our praise, honor and support forever.

All the best,

Jane (Janie) Pulverman Boscacci
