

It has been a dream for the Russian Old Believers to have a school ever since we first stepped foot on American soil some 60 years ago.

We were able to achieve that dream in 2020.

The following pages have the photos from the tour of the school:

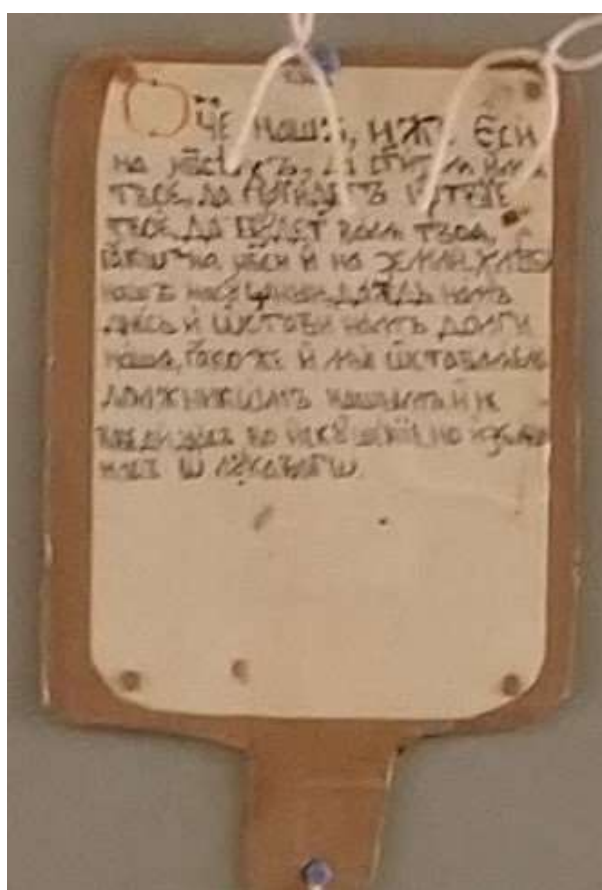

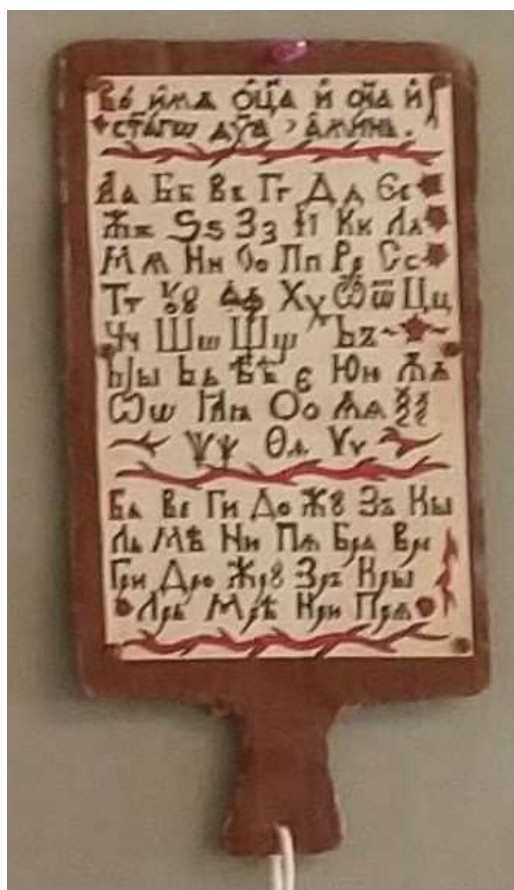

1-2 grades classroom with Church Slavonic alphabet wall cards

Wall display of Church Slavonic Hornbooks (with English explanation)

These were tablets used as learning tools by New Englanders that traveled and moved to North America. Their hornbooks consisted of the English Alphabet, sounds, and some Bible verses. We decided to make some our way.

Easter art work. Writing: Пасха (Pascha=Easter)

Пасха is good and it feels like the sun is dancing. I think it is joyful and happy that the one and only Jesus resurrected for us. Пасха is good and you get to eat meat, it reminds me of the summer. When I am in church, I am ready to sing songs. Only the first day it is the specialist.
