Wall display of Church Slavonic Hornbooks (with English explanation)

These were tablets used as learning tools by New Englanders that traveled and moved to North America. Their hornbooks consisted of the English Alphabet, sounds, and some Bible verses. We decided to make some our way.

Easter art work. Writing: Пасха (Pascha=Easter)

Пасха is good and it feels like the sun is dancing. I think it is joyful and happy that the one and only Jesus resurrected for us. Пасха is good and you get to eat meat, it reminds me of the summer. When I am in church, I am ready to sing songs. Only the first day is the specialist.

Russian Old Believer Community

Who We Are

Our Mission

To protect and preserve our faith. We strive to educate and provide resources to our community members of every generation so we can practice our traditions as they are intended.

Our Vision

To build a supportive organization that will encourage a path where all can be guided towards the closeness that our community brings, as well as a better understanding of our beautiful Old Believer religion.

Help us reach our goal!

The ROBC is dedicated to offering community services, providing a youth program, and has purchased a building in Silverton, Oregon that is currently being remodeled for the Holy Trinity private school.

We are a Christian organization of volunteers funded by your contributions.
Thank you for donating to the ROBC!

Holy Trinity School & Community Center

Russian Old Believers have dreamed of having a school ever since we first stepped foot on American soil. Thanks to the hard work and determination of our volunteers, we purchased a school in 2020. The Holy Trinity School, located in Silverton, Oregon, will be the location of a youth group, preschool, and community center.

It has been a dream for the Russian Old Believers to have a school ever since we first stepped foot on American soil some 60 years ago.

We were able to achieve that dream in 2020.

Speaking of the gala, do you have anyone else in your circle, or wealthy business owners you know that might want to attend? We have about 18 seats left to sell! One week away we are really hoping we can sell them to be able to reach our fundraising goals.

If you do and can pass on a friendly invitation we would so appreciate it!

Thank you and see you soon,
