

2. The sudden sale of his Apartment house --- and The strange episode between his favorite son P.W. and his daughter-in-law E.W. .

I could envision how in the Heavens a degree went out to inform the angel (who is to escort I.W.) to find a way to subdue I.W.'s Physical Flesh to breakdown in health so that he will stop resisting the transition from this body of flesh to take-on the soul/spirit body that is needed to pass the infinite time zone - on to the other side.

A suggestion was presented by an unidentified angel - "I will set up events in his life that will reflect upon his physical health" --- "and how will you do this" came a voice from near-by. "I will arrange a sale of his apartment house - Then I will involve his son P.W. and his daughter-in-law E.W. to get into a great contention between them - thus striking a heavy blow to his ego.

At first, because of his great love for his beloved son, who has turned-out a disappointment to him, he will commit himself by giving them the notion that after the sale of his apartment house he will consider buying their house from them, but while he is thinking along those lines, I will cause him to harden his heart toward his intent. At this point he will be caught in a very unpleasant situation - where even his own wife will resist him in this event.

The anguish and the anxiety of these events will produce some physical disorders - Thus slowly, yet at an increase pace, bring his body to cease resisting his desire for prolonging his resistance in continuing the desire to exist on the planet earth." - "PLAN ACCEPTED".

Here my thoughts raced back to my dad's desire to resolve his conflict with his beloved son and his daughter-in-law. At one time he envisioned his son P.W. becoming a great Evangelist or Preacher, (1961-63). He himself always dreamed of being a great preacher, of having recognition from people.

In the early sixties when he saw and heard P.W. take active part in street meetings; by playing the accordion and being a zealous witness, it brought a great satisfaction in his life. P.W. was the pride of his joy.

Then the great blow came when P.W. came back from Bethany Bible School - Something happened to his beloved Paul - Paul was not the same Paul that he was before Bethany. Dad's dreams were shattered.
