Alles Was Odem, Johann Sebastian Bach

State Introduction - Leo Newell – Good evening! That last piece you just heard was called “Alles Was Odem,” composed by Bach in 1723. The translation reads: All that has life and breath, rejoice greatly! For our next piece we are excited to premiere a song from our own alumni from 2003, Becky Stager’s Viperae (or the Vipers), referring to Matthew 23, when Christ loses trust in his followers and warns them of the consequences of following false idols. Our third piece is “O tebye raduyetsia”, composed by Pavel Chesnokov. This piece celebrates Mary and glorifies her sacred place in whom all of creation rejoices. Happy Mother’s Day! The last piece is Eternidad, written by Jeremiah Calisang in memory of his father. This song envisions a place in heaven, where there is joy, peace, and glory. Thank you for being here, and we are excited to take this journey with you.

Alles Was Odem Johann Sebastian Bach

<https://genius.com/Johann-sebastian-bach-singet-dem-herrn-lyrics>

Singet dem Herrn ein neues Lied / Sing to the Lord a new song.

Die Gemeine der Heiligen sollen ihn loben
Israel freue sich des, der ihn gemacht hat
Die Kinder Zion sei'n fröhlich über ihrem Könige Sie sollen loben seinen Namen im Reihen;
Mit Pauken und mit Harfen sollen sie ihm spielen

Wie sich ein Vater erbarmet Gott, nimm dich ferner unser an Über seine junge Kinderlein
So tut der Herr uns allen
So wir ihn kindlich fürchten rein
Er kennt das arm Gemächte
Gott weiß, wir sind nur Staub
Denn ohne dich ist nichts getan
Mit allen unsern Sachen
Gleichwie das Gras vom Rechen
Ein Blum und fallend Laub
Der Wind nur drüber wehet
So ist es nicht mehr da
Drum sei du unser Schirm und Licht
Und trägt uns unsre Hoffnung nicht
So wirst du's ferner machen

Also der Mensch vergehet
Sein End, das ist ihm nah
Wohl dem, der sich nur steif und fest
Auf dich und deine Huld verlässt

[Note: words in yellow are words sung]

Lobet den Herrn in seinen Taten
Lobet ihn in seiner großen Herrlichkeit!
Alles, was Odem hat,
lobe den Herrn. Halleluja!

Praise the Lord about his deeds;
praise him about his great glory.
Let everything that has breath praise the Lord, hallelujah.

Chesnokov - O Tebye Raduyetsia (All of Creation Rejoices) –

2014 STATE (Canby)

All of creation rejoices in You, O Full of Grace—
the assembly of angels and the human race.
O sanctified temple and spiritual paradise,
glory of virgins,
from whom God was incarnate and became a child-
our God before the ages.
He made Your body into a throne,
and Your womb he made more spacious than the heavens.
All of creation rejoices in You, O Full of Grace.
Glory to You!

[Note: this Church Slavonic song by Chesnokov was sung by the Canby Alumni Choir during the concert in 2025. See link (attachment below):

«О Тебѣ радуется...» (creation rejoices in you)

From the Divine Liturgy of St. Basil the Great:

О тебѣ радуется, Благодѣтная, всякая тварь, Ангельский собор и Человѣческий род, Освященный храмъ и раю словесный, Дѣвственная похвало, из неяже Бог воплотился и Младенец бысть, прежде век сый Бог наш, ложесна бо твоя Престолъ сотвори, и чрево твое пространнее Небес содела; о тебѣ радуется, Благодѣтная, всякая тварь, слава тебѣ.

O Tebé ráduyetśiā, Blagodátnaya, fśiākaya tvař, - ángleĭskiy sobór, i chelovĕcheskiy rod, osvĭāshchĕnniy ĥráme i ráyu slovĕsnĭy,
děvstĕnnaya poĥvaló,
iz Neyá zhe Bog voplotĭśiā i mladĕnĕts bist,
přezhde vek sĭy Bog nash;
lozhesná bo Tvojá přestól sotvořĭ,
i chřĕvo Tvoje prostránnĕye ěebĕs sođĕla.
O Tebé ráduyetśiā, Blagodátnaya, fśiākaya tvař, sláva Tebé.

This chant glorifies the Mother of God, Her liturgical and universal significance. She is likened to the Church and the Paradise, because the

All of creation rejoices in you, O full of grace, the ranks of Angels and the human race; hallowed Temple and spiritual Paradise, glory of Virgins; from you God was incarnate, and He, who is our God before the ages, became a little child. for He made your body a throne and made your womb more spacious than the heavens. All of creation rejoices in you, O full of grace; glory to you!

All of creation rejoices in You, O Full of Grace—the assembly of angels and the race of men. O sanctified temple and spiritual paradise, glory of virgins, from whom God was incarnate and became a child our God before the ages. He made Your body into a throne, and Your womb he made more spacious than the All of creation rejoices in You, O Full of Grace. Glory to You!

—from the Liturgy of St. Basil

Baby She gave birth to is the Savior of the world.

The lines of this beautiful hymn are reflected in Russian iconography – the first icons titled All Creation Rejoiceth in Thee date back to the late 15th and early 16th centuries. These icons figuratively embody the idea of the unity of the universe: the world above, enclosed in a circular symbol of eternal harmony, and the earthly world at the foot of the mountain.

This scene was very popular later, chiefly due to its universality. The only things that changed were the shape of the temple, the depiction of the paradise trees, the selection of saints, but the harmonious balance between the terrestrial and the celestial remained unaltered, figuratively conveying the central meaning of the chant. More than twenty large All Creation Rejoiceth in Thee icons of the 17th century and a few smaller ones have survived.

WMSU Grand Chorale - Eternidad

ETERNIDAD (Eternity) by Maestro Jeremiah Documento Calisang

"At times I'm suffering and tired

My thoughts and hope could never be found

But Your love gave me strength

Like a brand new day has come

My life I offer to Thee

My soul, my spirit, and my heart

Hear Thee Jesus my fervent prayer

To dwell with Thee for eternity!"

Eternidad is a Chavacano song, composed by Maestro Jeremiah Documento Calisang as a solemn prayer to thank our creator for His kindness and blessings that He gave us each day. It was debuted in 2014 for the WMSU Grand Chorale as one of their original renditions, and ever since, the song was used in their performances for doxologies and competitions.

Maestro Jeremiah Calisang, the choirmaster of the WMSU Grand Chorale, achieved international recognition with his piece 'Eternidad' at the 2024 Taipei International Chorale Competition, performed by the Tarlac State University Chorale.

Junto el Senor Jesucristo por eternidad,
Junto con el Senor Jesucristo por eternidad, Junto, junto, junto, junto, ah. Mi vida la ofrece
contigo mi alma mi espiritu y corazon, ah.
Cuando yo ta sufri y cansao, pensaba yo, no hay mas esperanza, ah. Pero de uste amor yadale fuerza como un nuevo dia ya llega. Mi vida ta ofrece contigo, ta ofrece mi alma, mi espiritu y corazon. Oi uste Jesus mi ferviente rezoman junto contigo na lugar, na lugar eternidad. Eternidad. Eternidad. Cuando dad, eternidad, ah, eternidad!

Together with the Lord Jesus Christ for all eternity—together with the Lord Jesus Christ for all eternity. Together, together, together, together—ah! I offer my life to You—my soul, my spirit, and my heart—ah! When I was suffering and weary, I thought to myself:
"There is no hope left"—ah! But Your love gave me strength, just as a new day dawns. I offer my life to You; I offer my soul, my spirit, and my heart. Hear, O Jesus, my fervent prayer: to be together with You in that place —in the place of eternity. Eternity. Eternity.
When that day comes—eternity—ah, eternity!

Viperae!

Christ's Words to the Pharisees

Performance Notes:

This piece is mostly written in 7/4 time, both as a nod to the "number of perfection" (7), and as a means to evoke a stilted sense of rhythm. The bass line most commonly demonstrates where the measure may be divided for conducting in groups of 4 and 3. Dotted barlines are added as suggestions for subdividing bars that are rhythmically more ambiguous.

The melody is often doubled on the octave. Portions of text with italicized text are meant to indicate who has the melody for ease of bringing it out of the texture.

Marcato sections should be heavy and driving, like a finger poking someone in the sternum with each accent. Legato sections should be fluid, with plenty of messa di voce, and should ring with heartbroken disappointment. All cesura should be treated as pointed silences. The halt of sound is intended to jar the listener.

All sprechstimme should be done with a voiced sound, rich and breathy. It should sound as if singers may be putting a curse on their enemies during these spoken parts!

The addition of percussion is intended to add more texture to the sound, bringing a sharper edge to the singing. The low downbeats should be done with a sound like low stomps, the thud of wooden staffs on the ground, or some other approach or combination. The higher clicks can be done with drum sticks, wooden blocks (nothing fancy required), etc. The entire choir is intended to participate, but it is recommended that smaller number of percussionists are engaged in the quieter sections. Percussion dynamics should directly correlate with the singer's dynamics.

Viperae! - Rebecca Stager - Canby Concert Choir - STATE 2026

The text for this piece is a collection of fragments from Matthew chapter 23, verses 4-33. Below are the full verses in the Latin Vulgate that contain the sung texts, along with the English translation.

4: alligant autem onera gravia et inportabilia et inponunt in umeros hominum digito autem suo nolunt ea movere
They tie up heavy, cumbersome loads and put them on other people's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them.

5: omnia vero opera sua faciunt ut videantur ab hominibus dilatant enim phylacteria sua et magnificent fimbrias
Everything they do is done for people to see: They make their phylacteries wide and the tassels on their garments long;

13: vae autem vobis scribae et Pharisei hypocritae quia clauditis regnum caelorum ante homines vos enim non intratis nec introeuntes sinitis intrare
Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people's faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to.

15: vae vobis scribae et Pharisei hypocritae quia circuitis mare et aridam ut faciatis unum proselytum et cum fuerit factus facitis eum filium gehennae duplo quam vos
Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when you have succeeded, you make them twice as much a child of hell as you are.

16: vae vobis duces caeci qui dicitis quicumque iuraverit per templum nihil est qui autem iuraverit in aurum templi debet
Woe to you, blind guides! You say, 'If anyone swears by the temple, it means nothing; but anyone who swears by the gold of the temple is bound by that oath.

17: stulti et caeci quid enim maius est aurum an templum quod sanctificat aurum
You blind fools! Which is greater: the gold, or the temple that makes the gold sacred?

23: vae vobis scribae et Pharisei hypocritae quia decimatis mentam et anethum et cyminum et reliquistis quae graviora sunt legis iudicium et misericordiam et fidem haec oportuit facere et illa non omittere
Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You give a tenth of your spices—mint, dill and cumin. But you have neglected the more important matters of the law—justice, mercy and faithfulness. You should have practiced the latter, without neglecting the former.

27: vae vobis scribae et Pharisei hypocritae quia similes estis sepulchris dealbatis quae a foris parent hominibus speciosa intus vero plena sunt ossibus mortuorum et omni spurcitia
Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of the bones of the dead and everything unclean.

33: serpentes genimina viperarum quomodo fugietis a iudicio gehennae
You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell?

The Last Words of Christ - Becky Stager, & Indodana - arr. Barrett/Schmitt

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JZ4PP9DWAmg> (Canby Concert Choir, 8:35)

The Last Words of Christ - Becky Stager (sop: Jenna Schmidt) Indodana - arr. Barrett/Schmitt (drum: Matt Solem) This year (2023), these two pieces became inseparable! Poetically, that made sense since Indodana is a South African lament, sung from the perspective of Mary, coping with loss. Once we trained to connect them with no break in between, the harmonic shift took on a life of its own, and became transformative. What a privilege! Words from our composer (alumni Becky Stager): "Over the past couple years, I've found myself developing an obsession with the words Jesus spoke; not the stories around it or the theology, but Christ's words themselves. One afternoon, over a year ago, I was looking through different accounts of Christ's last words before his death. As I was mashing them together to get a bigger picture, I was struck by a deep sense of his humanity: here was someone who felt utter and total betrayal, abandonment, and loneliness. "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me??" I can't get behind a divine figure who has no idea what it is to be human, to wrestle with doubt or fear or loneliness. But a divine who has been there, and to this level? That humanity is enormous to me. Once I saw some of the words together, the song came pouring out. I sat down at my computer and keyboard, and, three hours later, the song was done. I've only tweaked a few things from that moment onward."

Matthew 23:14

King James Bible

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

23 Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

²Saying The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat:

³All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

⁴For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

⁵But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

⁶And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, ⁷And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

⁸But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

⁹And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.

¹⁰Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

¹¹But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

¹²And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

¹³But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

¹⁴Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

¹⁵Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

¹⁶Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

¹⁷Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

¹⁸And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

¹⁹Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

²⁰Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

²¹And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

²²And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

²³Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

²⁴Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

²⁵Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

²⁶Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

²⁷Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

²⁸Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

²⁹Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, ³⁰And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

³¹Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

³²Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

³³Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

³⁴Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

³⁵That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

³⁶Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

³⁷O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

³⁸Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

³⁹For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

Several comments by judges (shared with me by Brooks):

Superior blend, balance and vowel uniformity maintained most of the time, which is wonderful given that you're doing 8-part music and standing mixed.

Diction and articulation consistently accurate and precise, in German, Latin, Russian and Spanish. Your Russian seemed especially polished.

Literature: You took us on a magical journey through the world and through time. Anyway, I hope that thousands of people get to hear this program. You are making the world a better place.

What an enormous, powerful, sensitive, loving choir!

Your last song was a brilliant ender.

I LOVE THIS CHOIRRRRRRR!!!!!! The whole country needs to hear you.

Thank you for all of your hard work to get to state. It takes great commitment, focus and teamwork, and I commend you for that! Your music is important – my deep gratitude for sharing it with us!

Brooks,

I want to congratulate you and the Canby Concert Choir on the fantastic performance at Corvallis that gave you a well-deserved "Four-Peat!"

I was there to witness the dynamic singing. – Paul J. Wigowsky

BROOKS GINGERICH

CANBY CHOIR

Brooks has established himself as an exceptional Choir Director through his unwavering commitment to excellence, inclusivity, and student growth. Under his leadership, the program has built a culture of high achievement, earning the 5A State Championship for 4 consecutive years. This accomplishment reflects Brooks' expertise and the dedication in his students. Brooks creates an environment where every student feels valued, which is evident in the nearly 100 students he serves within the program. His classroom fosters belonging while also maintaining high expectations, allowing students of varying backgrounds and abilities to thrive.

Canby School District Congratulations to our four-time state championship choir director Brooks Gingerich on being honored by the Oregon School Activities Association for coaching excellence. We are so proud of what Brooks has built and how much effort and care he puts into the Canby choir program every day.
